

Authorities Believe Robbery the Motive

FRANCIS W. TURNER IN PRISON

By Associated Press

Globe, Ariz., Sept. 12.—Francis W. Turner has been arrested in connection with the murder of J. A. Thompson and the wounding of D. Bennett last night. After the fight between Turner and Bennett, in which the latter was wounded, the lifeless body of Thompson, who is Bennett's roommate, was found nearby. Apparently Thomason had been dead for five hours. The officers believe Thompson was murdered and Bennett attacked with robbery as the motive, the criminal having planned to take two lives to obtain the weeks' wages paid the men at the local smelter.

Experimenting Today With The Direct Primary

By Associated Press

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 12.—The primary contests to be waged in New Jersey tomorrow, are especially interesting because they will be the first test of the new law giving the people an opportunity to express their choice for United States Senator. Former Governor Stokes and Former Governor Murphy, as the regulars and Congressman Fowler, standing for the "New Idea," of the men in the upper end of the state, are the candidates.

Senator Kean, who seeks re-election, refused to submit his candidacy to the people.

APALACHIAN EXPOSITION OPENS

Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 12.—Designed to bring to the attention of the world the resources and development of the rich Appalachian territory, of which Knoxville is the geographical center, the Appalachian Exposition was opened here today and will continue for one month. The exposition occupies spacious grounds at Chilwee Park, where large exposition buildings have been erected.

Virginia, the Carolinas, Georgia, Tennessee, Kentucky and Alabama, are represented in elaborate displays illustrating their industries and resources. The display of live stock and poultry is especially notable. Racing, aeroplane flights and numerous other attractions have been arranged for the entertainment of the thousands who are expected to visit the exposition.

PROGRESSIVES AT OYSTER BAY

By Associated Press

New York, Sept. 12.—In order to ascertain the exact status of the fight which the progressives are waging against the "old guard," for the control of the republican state convention, Theodore Roosevelt summoned a number of progressive leaders to Oyster Bay this afternoon for conference. They included Lloyd C. Griscom, Congressman Herbert Parsons, City Comptroller William Prendergast, Congressman W. M. Calder, E. W. Voorhees, and W. W. Cocks. The primaries will be held in New York, Buffalo and Rochester counties tomorrow.

TRINIDAD ITEMS

Contractor's Name Used On Fraudulent Checks.

The police are searching for a young man answering the description of a forger who during the fore part of the week obtained money from several of the local business houses under false pretenses. The fellow had acquired several Commercial Savings bank checks and affixed the name of John A. Laughlin at the bottom, he filled in the amounts to suit his fancy and at the same time not so large as to create the suspicion of any.

(Special to the Spanish American)

He made small purchases at several stores and asked the storekeepers to advance the rest of the amount in cash. This was done in two instances that are known of, one, it is understood, being for the sum of $16 and the other $21. Then he made good his escape and all efforts at locating him have failed. Laughlin had no funds at the Commercial Savings bank.—Chronicle-News.

Powell Is Fined

Charged with being drunk, resisting an officer and disturbance, Jack Powell, the right fielder of the Trinidad baseball team, appeared in police court yesterday afternoon, and the story of his transgressions was told by Officers Waller and Pfalmer, Roy Stowe and two others who were in the saloon at the time the trouble between Powell and "Doc" Macey occurred. Macey was discharged and Powell fined a total of $61 on the three charges.

The Chronicle News continues: "It was testified to that Powell in a quarrelsome mood, came and sat down at the lunch counter beside Stowe and Macey, who were waiting to be served. That Powell forced himself into an altercation with Macey and hit him, whereat Macey picked up a cup and let it fly at Powell, striking him in the head. Placed under arrest Powell refused to go along and fought three officers all the way down to the new city jail where he became one of the first inmates of that modern bastille. Present in court were most of the members of the local ball team.

GUNBOAT IS IN PURSUIT

By Associated Press

Harbin, Manchuria, Sept. 12.—A band of brigands, disguised as passengers, held up a Russian steamer south of this point today, and after a desperate fight overcame the crew and robbed the passengers. In defending the vessel, the owners, two Russians, were killed and many of the Chinese crew were wounded as were a number of Chinese passengers, who offered resistance. A gunboat has been sent in pursuit of the robbers.
